BABY AT R. T. THOMPSON HOME

Arriving in time to get her tiny stocking ready for Santa Claus' visit, a beautiful girl baby took up her residence this morning with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Thompson, who now live in Lancaster but are sojourning in Glendale in order that the baby's grandmother, Mrs. Laura Steele, 1528 Loraine street, North Glendale, may share their joy in the newcomer. Although the most astute maestro could not yet decide whether she's a soprano or a contralto, 'tis certain that the young lady has a voice. The young lady's mother was before her marriage to Mr. Thompson Miss Ella A. Steele, and she is well known in Glendale. She's very proud of her first-born, but it is reported that in the matter of pride in the lovely little newcomer she can't hold a candle to the baby's father or grandmother. Mrs. Thompson and the baby are at Glendal Sanitarium.

RETURN HOME

The return trip was also made via automobile, with stops at Louisville, Indianapolis, Springfield, Illinois; Des Moines, Sioux Falls, Sheridan, Wyoming; Butte, Montana; Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; Spokane, and Yakima, Washington. Until they can find a permanent location, they are staying at 552 West Broadway.

CALL MEETING

OPPOSITION TO OPENING OF COMMERCIAL STREET WILL MEET FRIDAY NIGHT

For the purpose, it is stated, of considering ways and means to prevent the opening of Commercial street, ordered at the last meeting of the board of city trustees, a meeting will be held at the residence of T. M. Barrett, 364 West Wilson street, Friday night. A number of residents on West Broadway and its vicinity declare they are still opposed to the opening of Commercial street, despite the fact the work was ordered by the trustees following a presentation of a petition signed by a great majority of the business men of the city and backed by the presence of a delegation of more than a score of merchants. The meeting Friday night will, it is expected, seek to find some method to block the improvement, although just what steps will be taken are not yet known, it is stated.

FREEHOLDERS FAVOR MANAGER

COMMISSION FORM OF CITY GOVERNMENT NOT FOUND PRACTICAL, DECISION

START DRAFT WORK

COMMITTEE TO BE CHOSEN TO DRAW UP FORM FOR GLENDALE'S CHARTER

Besides deciding that the proposed city charter shall provide for the election of five members of the city council, the members of the board of education, a city clerk and a city treasurer, and that all other administrative officials shall be appointed by the council, the board of freeholders in session at the city hall last night determined that: The city charter shall be modeled along the lines of a managerial form of government. A special committee shall at once begin the formation of a charter along these lines to be submitted to the board for adoption, alterations or total rejection. The completed draft of the charter shall be ready to be filed with the city clerk and board of trustees by December 29, if possible. By unanimous vote, Chairman Bert P. Woodard was delegated to name a special committee to make a rough draft of a charter along the lines outlined in the various discussions held by the freeholders. Chairman Woodard announced that he was not yet ready to select the committee, but stated that he desired to make F. L. Muhleman a member of it, the latter being an attorney and a member of the freeholders' board. "I will hold a conference with Mr. Muhleman at once and we will, after consulting other members of the board, determine upon the charter drafting committee," said Chairman Woodard. "I will strive to select members who have the time to devote to the work, for we must work fast in order to have the rough draft ready for submission to the board as a whole for its consideration, alteration or rejection."

Some Discussion Results
Discussion as to whether city officials, besides the members of the council, shall be appointed or elected displayed differences in opinion among the members of the board of freeholders last night. In particular, R. M. McGee held that practically all of the officials should be elected to office by the voters. He argued that an election was more democratic; that better service to the public was obtained from elective officials; that greater efficiency resulted when men were put into office by the voters; that, through the recall, the voters could control the officials better than if the officials were appointed by the council.

During the discussion it developed the freeholders were not all agreed as to just which officials should be appointed and which elected. Arguments were made and, finally, the matter was settled by C. W. Kimlin making a motion that the councilmen, members of the board of education, city clerk and city treasurer shall be elected and all other officials appointed by the council, the matter of selecting a comptroller being held open. The motion was seconded by W. R. Phelon and carried unanimously, excepting the vote of Mr. McGee, cast in the negative.

Matter Not Yet Settled
It is explained, however, that this action does not finally settle the question, but is only a guide to the drafting committee in preparation of the charter. The board as a whole, when the charter is submitted in its proposed form, has the right to order, by majority vote, any changes deemed advisable.

So it may be the schedule of electing and appointing officials, as determined last night, may be changed, although this is not anticipated, as a majority of the freeholders seem to be of the belief that centralization of power in the council is the most progressive and the most satisfactory way of conducting municipal affairs. Also, it was pointed out, charters being adopted by other cities give the council very free appointive powers, it being the theory that if the voters realize the council has such powers greater care will be taken in the selection of the persons to sit on the council.

Those absent were: A. W. Beach, G. H. Bentley and Henry Johnston. The next meeting will be held at the call of Chairman Woodard and, it is expected, will take place within the next two weeks, provided the special committee yet to be selected to make a rough draft of a charter completes its work.

COUNCIL MAKES APPOINTMENTS

MOST OF CITY OFFICIALS TO BE CHOSEN BY BOARD, SO FREEHOLDERS DECIDE

ELECTION FOR SOME

PEOPLE TO VOTE ON COUNCIL, BOARD OF EDUCATION, CITY CLERK AND TREASURER

The tentative draft of the charter proposed for the city of Glendale will provide, among other things, that the voters shall elect:

The five members of the city council.
The members of the board of education.
The city clerk.
The city treasurer.

All other administrative officials shall be appointed by the council. This action was taken by the board of freeholders in session at the city hall last night, with Chairman Bert P. Woodard presiding and Dr. Jessie A. Russell as secretary.

The question as to whether a comptroller—or he may be designated as an auditor in the charter—shall be elected by the voters or appointed by the council was left open and is for the charter drafting committee to temporarily decide in forming the tentative document.

WILL TEST CASE IN DOCTOR'S ARREST

RIGHTS OF GLENDALE AND OTHER CITIES WILL BE FINALLY DETERMINED

DR. ECKLES ACTS

HAS PATIENT REMOVED TO COUNTY HOSPITAL AND IS ARRESTED FOR ACTION

To be "pinched" for doing one's duty is tough enough, but to be "pinched" for doing a plain duty that makes for the protection of the whole community as well as the healing of one unfortunate individual—that's the limit. 'Tis enough to just about ruin the disposition of a saint; but not being a saint, but only a common-sense, rather independent individual, Dr. J. E. Eckles only laughs about it, and says he's going to see it through.

But perhaps it would be more enlightening if we began at the beginning:

On Monday an eastern tourist motoring across the country noticed an eruption on his face and decided that he'd better have a physician look him over. Accordingly, when he reached Glendale he called on Dr. G. Kaemmerling, who diagnosed his ailment as a mild case of smallpox and called in the health officer of Glendale, Dr. Eckles.

The man was a stranger far from home; he needed care, and needless to say he was a menace to others with whom he might come in contact. Moved by these considerations, Dr. Eckles began to try to get action in the matter of having him admitted to the contagious ward at the county hospital. The man didn't properly belong to Glendale, yet it was necessary for the sake of the community at large as well as for his own sake, to have his case attended to immediately—"if not sooner."

Bound About by Red Tape
Now, he it known to the readers of The Evening News that red tape doth hedge the county hospital 'e'en as divinity doth hedge a king (or at least it used to hedge 'em in the days when Shakespeare wrote it).

Dr. Eckles called on the state health officials for authority to place the stranger in this detention ward, and they "passed the buck," he says, to the county health department. When the doctor sought permission from county health authorities, they did the same thing; each one sending him from one to the other in a sort of "Pussy wants a corner" game. Dr. Eckles humored them for a while, but never gaining a "corner," he grew tired of the play, ruthlessly and autocritically cut the red tape—(Continued on Page 4)

CELEBRATION

SEVENTIETH BIRTHDAY OF MRS. CYNTHIA LA ROWE IS FITTINGLY OBSERVED

A home festival of especial noteworthy was the celebration of the seventieth birthday of Mrs. Cynthia La Rowe and her twin sister, Mrs. Sarah Johnston, last Sunday.

Mrs. Johnston was the hostess of the occasion, celebrating with a birthday dinner at her lovely home in Alhambra. Besides the honor guest, Mrs. La Rowe, there were present the two brothers of the twin celebrants, Jasper Harlow of Redondo, L. E. Harlow of Santa Monica, and Mrs. L. E. Harlow.

The dining table where the sumptuous birthday dinner was spread was centered with a huge basket of fruits of many varieties. These were all raised on the Johnston place as were also the exquisite roses that gave their beauty and their fragrance to grace the birthday feast, and the fragrant camellias that marked the place of each guest.

The large birthday cake was decorated with red roses, the "mother's flower," instead of candles.

The celebrants of the day received many letters and cards of felicitation, the most welcome of all being greetings from their mother, 92 years old, who lives in Pinkney, Michigan, in the home of Mrs. La Rowe's oldest daughter.

Mrs. La Rowe has two little great-grandchildren, too young to appreciate the fact that they have a great-great grandmother who is still hale and hearty—so hale and hearty, in fact, that she bids fair to live until they are grown up enough to feel proper pride in their great-great grandmother.

ASKS CONGRESS TO INCREASE FEDERAL INCOME TAX RATES ON ALL WITH INCOME UNDER $5000

Secretary of Treasury Urges That Sur Tax Be Made Lower; Proposes Levy on Gasoline and Automobiles

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Secretary of the Treasury Houston today asked congress to boost the federal income tax rates 2 per cent on incomes under $5000. Houston at the same time asked that:

Sur taxes be lowered on larger incomes.
Corporations be made to pay a flat tax of 20 per cent on undivided profits.

Big increases be made in existing consumers' taxes on tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, candy, chewing gum and the like.
Gasoline be taxed 2 cents per gallon and automobiles 50 cents per horsepower.

Houston's proposals were contained in his annual report presented to Speaker Gillette of the house at noon and are intended to net the government approximately $2,000,000,000 a year.

At least $12,000,000,000 must be collected during the next three years, Houston declared, if the government is to pay its ordinary expenses, and meet $7,500,000,000 worth of floating debts and victory loans before May 1, 1923.

WILSON MAY AGAIN SUBMIT PEACE TREATY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—President Wilson is considering resubmitting the peace treaty to congress, sending with it a special message on the subject of America's foreign relations, it was intimated in administrative quarters today. The text of the treaty is still in the president's hands, where it was sent when rejected by the senate the last time, according to officials here. He, therefore, is in a position to resubmit it any time he sees fit.

FOUR HURT AND HEAVY DAMAGE BY FIRE

(Special Service to Sentinel-Progress)
SAN JOSE, Dec. 8.—Four firemen were in a serious condition today as a result of being overcome by smoke in a fire in the basement of Gross & Son's dry goods store. The fire, of unknown origin, rapidly spread to adjoining buildings, causing damage of about $400,000.

TRAPPED IN HOUSE, THREE BURN TO DEATH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 8.—Three men were burned to death and property damage estimated at $75,000 was done today by fire which broke out in a varnish store. The victims, all loggers, were trapped in their beds in a rooming house, to which the flames spread.

COX MAKES OFFER TO PRESIDENT-ELECT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 8.—Governor Cox of Ohio, defeated democratic candidate for the presidency, today wired President-elect Harding offering to appoint Senator-elect Willis of Ohio to fill the unexpired portion of Harding's term as senator, should Harding care to resign immediately.

RED CROSS

FINAL CHECK UP DISPLAYS FACT THAT GLENDALE HAS TOTAL OF $2074.68

Final checking up of the fourth roll call of the Red Cross shows that Glendale did nobly, more than doubling her quota, which was $1000. The total amount received here during the campaign is $2,074.68. One-half the membership money is retained by the Glendale chapter, the other half goes to headquarters in San Francisco. Four-fifths of all gifts to the local Red Cross are retained here, one-fifth going to San Francisco headquarters; this brings Glendale's share to $1,107.34, her proportion of the gift money being $70. Expenses were less than $100, so that Glendale Red Cross chapter has cleared for itself more than $1,000.

This is a most excellent showing and Glendale Red Cross workers may well be proud of this crowning of their efforts. No one in Glendale is surprised at the record, for Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward, as well as every member of her efficiently-organized teams, had long ago established a record for good work carried to a successful issue.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8.—The official weather forecast issued today is as follows: Fair tonight and Thursday; probable light frosts in interior.

STORE ROBBED

CHAFFEE GROCERY STORE AT BURBANK IS ENTERED AND $400 IS TAKEN AWAY

Some time during last night a burglar or burglars entered Chaffee's grocery store, No. 18, located at 147 San Fernando road, Burbank, obtained $200 in checks and $200 in currency and made a "get away." No trace of the robbers has been found. Entrance was made through a back door. It is believed that the person committing the burglary was familiar with where the store management was in the habit of hiding the coin, the establishment not being provided with a safe.

VARIOUS COMMITTEES ACTIVE

United effort and contagious enthusiasm are miracle workers. This fact is again demonstrated by the progress reported at the meeting of the chairmen in charge of the various booths for the Christmas bazaar to be held by the members of the Church of the Holy Family on next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Every committee was ready to report progress, and the fair, which is to be held in the old Elks' hall in the Central building, is sure to be a success and will yield the parish a substantial sum to add to its building fund.

Seek Sewer System

The Verdugo Woodlands Improvement association will meet in Glendale city hall this evening to consult with City Manager Watson and City Engineer Hill concerning a plan for a sewage disposal system for their district.

It is planned to work out a tentative scheme for concerted action with the city of Glendale, which may be presented to the city council. The subject of zoning may also be taken up for discussion.

City Manager Watson and City Engineer Hill have been authorized by the trustees to arrange with the Improvement association of Verdugo Woodlands for a discussion of a plan regarding these two points.

It Lures You

D. Carney, 112 East Broadway, is one of the pioneer merchants of Glendale. This year he has a particularly attractive stock of men's furnishing goods, boots and shoes for both sexes, from which to select useful Christmas gifts, and he has marked his goods down to the lowest figures consistent with a safe and legitimate business. There is always an atmosphere of real welcome and cordiality about the Carney store and the remembrance of it lures you back there again.

Enjoy Opening Dance

A select crowd of Glendale's young people enjoyed the opening dance at the Pearl Keller studio, 109 North Brand boulevard, last evening. The floor was good and the music perfect, and as these pleased young people will not only come again themselves but will also tell their friends of these Tuesday and Friday night dances, this innovation of Messrs. Fred Howell and LeRoy Bush gives promise of being a success in a business way as well as adding one more source of enjoyment to Glendale's all too few amusements for our young people.

PLAN FURTHER PROTECTION
MARYSVILLE, Cal.—Plans for further protection of the ring-necked pheasant and the providing of a sanctuary of the Bryden and Gienela ranches in northern Yuba and southern Butte counties will be presented to the California Legislature in the session to open in January, by the State Fish and Game commission. There are 2,000 acres in the land proposed to be set aside for this purpose.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird of 637 North Orange street returned last night from a two weeks' auto trip to San Francisco, Oakland, and other northern points. Miss Bessie Howard, cousin of Mrs. Baird's, accompanied them from Fresno to Glendale and will be their guest here.

Chapter A. H. P. E. O., met at the home of Mrs. John Hobbs, 920 South Central avenue, yesterday. About fifteen members were present. After the regular business meeting the afternoon was spent in telling comforters for the Glendale Welfare council. The regular program planned for the afternoon was not given, on account of so many members being absent owing to inclement weather.

RENTS QUICKLY

EVERY STORE ROOM IN NEW BRICK BUILDING TAKEN BY NEW CONCERNS HERE

Mrs. James McEnany, owner of the new brick building on West Broadway near the corner of Brand boulevard, has rented every store room, and has turned away ten disappointed applicants.

One of these disappointed concerns was a Los Angeles market company which offered Mrs. McEnany $400 a month on a ten-year lease.

Outsiders, at least, have faith in the future of Glendale, as is evidenced by an offer like this from an outside business firm. The company seeking a location here are shrewd and far-seeing business men, and the fact that they wanted a ten-year lease and were willing to pay $48,000 for it proves that they did not regard their projected plan of opening of a market here as a venture, but as an assured business proposition.

PLAN DANCE

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS TO HAVE SOCIAL TIME ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Believing that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy (to say nothing of what it does to Jill), the Daughters of Veterans, Tent No. 18, will trip the "light fantastic" on Friday evening at Odd Fellows' hall.

Of course, the Daughters are not setting out to be exclusive in their merry-making; on the contrary, everyone is invited to this dancing party, and as these ladies are famed for entertainments well planned and successfully carried out, there's no doubt that they will have dancing partners galore.

Mercer's orchestra will furnish the dance music and a bevy of charming young ladies under the chairmanship of Miss Mildred McKee will serve punch.

The committee on arrangements comprises Mesdames Charlotte McKee, Queen Danner and Winona Crawford.

HEN IS BURIED

PRECIOUS PEWEE IS LAID AT REST AND OWNER MOURNS THROUGHOUT NIGHT

ST. LOUIS—Encased in a tiny casket trimmed in brass, "Precious Pewee," believed to have been the most pampered hen in the world, has been buried in the Stern family lot in Centralia, Ill. Mrs. Max Stern announced amid a flood of mournful tears.

"Precious Pewee" departed this life last Monday at the age of six years, after several physicians, who, Mrs. Stern says she had in attendance, had failed to save her. Death was due to a lingering illness, originating in a broken leg suffered in a fall from a chair in the Stern drawing room.

After having the body of the fowl embalmed, Mrs. Stern told reporters she sat by the tiny casket all Monday night mourning the loss of her pet. Mrs. Stern is childless.

LOSING MARKET

GERMAN-MADE TOYS ARE NOT IN GREAT DEMAND; OTHERS FINDING READY SALE

CHICAGO—American toy manufacturers are wrestling from Germany one of its greatest industries. Before the war Germany made the toys for the world, but during the four years the Heines were busy trying to kick the universe in the face there sprang up sources of supply to meet the demands of the millions of Americans and other children.

Large cargoes of German-made toys were thrown upon the American market during 1920. They were not labeled as "made in Germany," but were disguised under American or French or Japanese names, and they sold like hot cakes. Dealers admit that German toys made by hand are much more durable than the American machine-made article and they also say a child does not care for a toy that falls apart easily. Hence the German-made wooden toys in one piece are likely to hold their place, for Americans will not waste their time in making them.

But in the mechanical toys American manufacturers have about swept Germany out of the market, not only in this country, but in Europe and South America. Five years ago the American toy industry represented a turnover of $20,000,000. For 1920 it exceeded $100,000,000.

MAN KILLED WHILE HUNTING

When he did not return at meal time his wife notified neighbors who instituted a search. He was lying on his shotgun. In his left hand he carried several squirrels. Two years ago Mr. Smith's uncle was killed in the same manner while hunting near his home.

OPPOSE JAPS

ORGANIZATION SENDS COPY OF RESOLUTIONS TO NATIONAL OFFICERS ON SUBJECT

Opposition to Japanese aggression in the United States is expressed in a resolution recently adopted by the Los Angeles County Anti-Asiatic league. The resolutions have been forwarded to the state department at Washington, also to the president and the United States senate. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, it is the opinion of the citizens of the city of Los Angeles in mass meeting assembled that an increasing Asiatic population is a menace to the political, economic, social, moral and religious standards that are the priceless heritage of our fathers, and

Whereas, we recognize no higher obligation to our state, our nation, our descendants, and to ourselves than to prevent the further peaceful penetration of the Asiatics, and

Whereas, we believe that the welfare of the citizens of America will be best served by limiting citizenship to those races which are now entitled to citizenship, and

Whereas, we believe that citizenship is a privilege which the executive department of our government should not confer.

Result of Election

Whereas, the people of the state of California at the general election held November 2, 1920, adopted by a majority of over 400,000 the initiative measure, the alien land bill, restricting the right of aliens ineligible to citizenship to own or control agricultural lands; Now therefore be it resolved:

First: That delegating to a foreign government the prerogative of determining, by passport or otherwise, which of its citizens are eligible as immigrants to this country is contrary to the spirit of our constitution, which delegated that prerogative to congress, to be exercised through legislation, and to the president "with the advice and consent of the senate," to be exercised as a treaty-making power.

Second: That we are in sympathy with the proposed amendment to the federal constitution denying citizenship to children born in this country of foreign parents unless both parents are eligible to citizenship.

Third: That we disapprove of any form of diplomatic agreement by the executive department of the government which encroaches upon the prerogative of congress to control immigration.

Not Permitted Under Treaty
Fourth: That as Japan, under the treaty of 1911, is contending for the privileges which the treaty never contemplated, we are of the opinion that said treaty should either be abrogated at the earliest date permissible under its terms or be so amended as to eliminate every excuse for misconstruction.

Be it further resolved, That we, the citizens of Los Angeles, in mass meeting assembled, hereby protest the proposal, or ratification of any new treaty, which will grant to Japanese any greater rights than are contained in the treaty of 1911, or which will act to nullify any of the provisions of the California alien land law adopted by the overwhelming majority as an initiative measure by the people of the state of California, on November 2, 1920.

We, the undersigned chairman and secretary of a mass meeting of the citizens of the city of Los Angeles, held in said city on Tuesday evening, November 20, 1920, attest that the foregoing resolutions were adopted and that we were directed by such meeting to forward said resolutions to the president, to the state department, and to the senate of the United States.

QUIT POLAND

MANY JEWISH PEOPLE LEAVE FOR AMERICA; SAYS POLES ARE HOSTILE TO THEM

GRAUDENZ, Poland—An exodus of Jews from Poland, which has been steadily increasing for many weeks, has reached such proportions that Polish army officers say it is certain that more than 250,000 soon will have left. Most of them are bound for America.

The Poles, who are frankly and bitterly hostile toward the Jew, make no objection to their departure, but they criticize what they assert is the attitude of the joint distribution committee of America, which has many motor trucks and large supplies throughout Poland.

When a number of trucks and automobiles of this committee arrived here, the military authorities refused to permit them to proceed or move about in this area, saying these trucks were carrying contraband over the German border under the protection of the American flag and that there was evidence the committee had assisted Jews who were liable for military service to leave Poland. Proof of these accusations was requested by the correspondent but it was not furnished.

MORE MEN THAN JOBS

RENO—For the first time in several years this city reports more men than jobs, according to employment agencies here. Stoppage of work at the Red River Lumber company's plant at Westwood, Lassen county, and other large lumber companies had caused an influx of men into this city. Stopping of road construction has added to the overflow also.

Our Depositors Are Safe

If you will do a little investigating among your friends you will find that the people who have the most to do with banks have the most confidence in them.

The more people learn about banks the more they are convinced that our banking system is safe. The strict supervision of state and national governments makes dishonest banking very difficult. There is no business in which such large capital is invested and there is so small a percentage of loss as there is in the banking business.

This bank is examined by the national banking department several times every year. We must conduct our affairs according to law. Our depositors are absolutely safe.

IMPOSSIBLE? OH, NO!

Frenchmen fly about in little $1200 airplanes now that will almost fit into a hencoop. Yet it is only a little more than a century ago that they were being assured by the rest of the world that Napoleon's attempt to cross the Alps with his army was impossible.

That is a fallacy fairly common to mankind. We sagely explain all the reasons why a thing can't be done, and then when it's accomplished, we sagely explain all the reasons why it can. Scotch folk used to be fond of a fine phrase of the impossible: Ding down Tantallon. This referred to the fortress of the Douglasses. Why, it was built on such a promontory of rock, its back to the air and sea, that it was held impregnable for all time. Then some fellow who wasn't convinced came along with a cannon. His name was Monk, and he performed the operation of "dinging down Tantallon" in 1650 with neatness, not to say dispatch.

So be careful when you say a thing's impossible. Some fool citizen is likely to surprise you.

CITY MANAGER

MANAGERIAL GOVERNMENT TO BE FORM USED IN NEW CHARTER FOR CITY

following previous meetings held by the freeholders, the managerial form of government seems to be unanimously favored by the board. It is pointed out that the city is not in the position to pay a salary of $5,000 or more a year each to five commissioners, hence the commission form is no longer being considered. And, too, all of the charters being adopted now call for the managerial form as being the most satisfactory; even cities having the commission form are changing over to the managerial system.

The duties of a city manager were discussed at last night's meeting, but it was not fully decided how much power he should be given. Some of the freeholders were of the belief the city manager should have full authority in making his appointments and fixing salaries of his appointees; others were of the opinion the council should confirm both appointments and salaries.

The matter was, finally, left open and the charter drafting committee will bring in its own ideas on the subject, gathered from the discussions, with the board as a whole having the power to accept or reject. The motion to form the charter under a managerial form was made by Mrs. Mabel L. Tight.

Discussion on Comptroller
There was a slight difference of opinion on the duties of the comptroller, an official proposed as an addition to the city's administrative force. Some favored giving the comptroller rather free powers; others reasoned that he should act wholly as an auditor and check up the city's finances. Those favoring the latter, declared that if the comptroller's powers were too far reaching he might be in a position to halt progressive plans outlined by the council and city manager.

It seemed to be the general agreement, finally, that the comptroller, if one is provided for, should have the power to watch over the city's finances and see to it that funds were not exhausted; that he should check up proposed expenditures and inform the council if that body was about to contract for something for which there was not enough money in the treasury to pay.

"He should be the watch-dog of the city's finances," declared R. M. McGee. And his declaration seemed to meet with the approval of the other freeholders.

ARREST DOCTOR

TEST CASE WILL BE MADE SO THAT GLENDALE MAY KNOW ITS FULL RIGHTS

an awful offence, in the eyes of Los Angeles city health officials, as will be seen later—and sent the patient out to the county hospital, under police escort.

Technically, the doctor admits, he did wrong; but what's a technicality in a case of that kind, especially when, as the doctor says, he had tried in every way known to him to get the business transacted "according to Hoyle?"

The city health department of Los Angeles, however, saw the thing in a different light. Discipline must be maintained, smallpox or no smallpox; let the smallpox patient stand around, first on one foot, then on the other, one, three or five days, maybe, while his case was properly categorized. Glendale had frequently waited one, three or five days before to have a patient from their city entered in the county hospital—why need Dr. Eckles be in such a hurry now to enter a mere smallpox case?

True, Glendale pays her fair proportion of the county tax that goes to make up the appropriation for the use of this contagious ward, but what of that?

Warrant Issued for Arrest
Perhaps some such just, fair and humane thoughts passed through the minds of the Los Angeles city health officials and moved them to swear out a warrant for Dr. Eckles' arrest. Anyway, that's what they did; had him arrested for putting a poor, way-faring, smallpox patient who was a menace to the whole community in the only place there was to put him, the contagious ward of the Los Angeles county hospital, for the upkeep and use of which ward the city of Glendale has paid her share.

The case is to be tried before Judge Harry Miller, but the date has not yet been set. However, neither Dr. Eckles nor anyone else in Glendale is worrying about what's going to happen to him—if anything.

Glendale officials and officials of other municipalities in the county believe that a test case should be made of the matter and it be finally determined just what procedure should be taken in future cases that may arise.

DARING TRIP

SOUTH DAKOTA MEN TO MAKE DANGEROUS EXCURSION TO EXPLORE COUNTRY

Two South Dakota men, H. P. Johnson and H. T. Becker, will make a daring expedition into South America for the purpose of making a search for and exploring the country of the famous "head shrinkers."

Johnson served in the British imperial army throughout the war and attained the rank of major, being a member of the Highlanders, of the famous company which became known as "The Ladies from Hell." He returned to the United States a few months ago and took a position as instructor at Culver institute, but left there about a month ago for a big game hunt in the Rocky Mountains to harden himself for the hazardous journey through the unexplored sections of South America.

Into Unexplored Region
The particular object of the expedition which the men are planning is to learn the secret process whereby the Jivaros, a tribe of Indians in a strip of territory that has never been explored by white men, shrink human heads.

These savages are said to have a process whereby they cut off the heads of their victims, and by utilizing hot stones and certain chemicals, manage to shrink the heads to the size of an orange without in any way injuring the features.

They are always on the warpath against the white men who from time to time attempt to invade their country. Referring to this, Johnson said:

"Anyone going into that country must take his life in his hands, and keep his hands on his gun."

Fight with Poisoned Arrows

Weapons used by the Jivaros are blowpipes, spears and bows and arrows, all of which are utilized with deadly poison extracted from snakes. This very much resembling in effect the strychnine of the modern world. The expedition will be thorough in every way and if the adventurers succeed in getting into the country and making friends with the Indians as many films as possible of the Indians will be made.

A story is related that just prior to the beginning of the world war Germany sent a representative of that country into the unexplored country of the Jivaros, known as the "disputed ground," with orders to find, if possible, the secret process of the savages. The German was gone for several months, but as the people knew of the thorough manner in which the Germans go after these things, little was thought about his failure to reappear in the civilized portion of South America from which he had plunged into the wilds.

However, a head was seen in the market at Cuenca one day, with blonde hair on it, and when it was purchased and taken to the consul it was found to be the head of the German explorer. He was the last man to make an effort to ascertain the secret process.

A Wife to Most Effective Killer

There is said to be a custom among these savages to the effect that the warrior who obtains the most heads is entitled to make his choice from among the village belles. This probably is one reason why they are so keen after the heads of their enemies.

Another South American tribe that will be filmed by the Americans is the Materimas, a famous tribe of cannibals. These are very peculiar people, their especial delicacies being the palms of the hands and the soles of the feet, fried in the fat of the tapir.

DICTAPHONE GETS NEW FAME

SYDNEY, N. S. W.—The dictaphone has achieved new fame and a novel use in Australia. Hon. William Hughes has had the machine installed in the house of representatives and connecting with all government offices. It is fitted with amplifiers on the receivers. Thus the prime minister, seated at his office desk, is able to hear all the proceedings.

LARGE SAVING TO FARMERS

MODESTO, Cal.—According to the 1920 report of County Agent A. Jungerman, $11,500 was saved to the farmers in this county through the holding of twenty hog auction sales by the farm bureau at Modesto and Turlock. The sales yielded $114,352 to the farmers who consigned their hogs to the sales.
